“IMMEDIATELY ENTHRALLING, MAGICAL AND SEDUCTIVE. A CAPTIVATING PLOT.”

—Armand Mastroianni
Director The Celestine Prophecy

When Vivienne Le Faye, a sixteen-year-old, with intuitive powers inherits a priceless family amulet, she becomes an instant target.

Unaware of her noble heritage, the family CURSE haunts her, while DANGER threatens her, and a mysteriously handsome boy with golden eyes appears to protect her.

Convinced he's real and exists somewhere and positive she has fallen irretrievably in love with him, Vivienne bravely follows her 'gift of sight' to England where her Amulet allows her passage through a Portal of Mists. There, in a mystical world of witchcraft and wizardry, where many perils await her, she discovers he is an immortal Wizard with supernatural powers and she is the last Princess of the Misty Isle, destined to become the next Lady of the Lake.

Called to battle, to fulfill her birthright and armed with her new gifts of war craft and spell craft, together they must confront a terrifying enemy, the Master of the Souls, so that Vivienne can save their Magical World and allow the Misty Isle to rise again.
